

Councillor Russ Powers's column
for Oct 25th edition of the Dundas Star Journal.

Flu season is just around the corner with the arrival of the winter weather. Although Community Flu Clinic in Dundas has already taken place, there still are nine other ones throughout the City in late October/ early November...for their locations, call 905.546.CITY (2489) or learn more at www.hamilton.ca/flu .

On October 18th, the City of Hamilton hosted its annual 'Hamilton in Bloom Celebration Event' at the Gage Park Green House and Dundas was well represented with thirty local properties receiving a 'White Trillium Award' and Shari Pegg & Angelo Bonaccorso (7 Tweedsmuir Ave) receiving a 'Pink Trillium Award' as the best in Dundas. In the corporate category, the Marlatt Funeral Home (195 King St W) received an Award of Excellence. Also, last week, Hamilton City Council and the Planning and Economic Development Department presented the first 'Business Appreciation Awards and Dundas was well represented with El Met Parts Inc. and The Keeping Room achieved recognition in the Large and Small Business categories, respectively...Congratulations to all!

Last Friday evening, I attended the Dundas Little Theatre's opening night of their current production 'Scotland Road' by Jeffery Hatcher, a mystery about the RMS Titanic. Future shows (8 PM) will be on Oct 25th, 26th, 27th, Nov 1st, 2nd and 3rd in the Garstin Centre for the Arts, 37 Market St S. Tickets are available at Holden's Florists or by calling 905.627.5266. Visit www.dundaslittletheatre.com for further information on future productions (2 more this season).

On Sunday, November 11th, Dundas' annual Remembrance Day Service will take place at Cenotaph Square (S/W corner of King St West at Market St South) commencing at 10: 45 AM. I encourage you to line King St West as our veterans march from Memorial Square up the street...they deserve our heartfelt thanks.

The next Dundas Community Council meeting is Wednesday, November 21st at 7 PM in the Council Chambers of the Dundas Town Hall, 60 Main St.
